Subject: NOTICE OF PUBLIC RECORD RELEASE – FEDERAL ENFORCEMENT ARCHIVE NOW LIVE
Importance: High

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE SEVENTH CIRCUIT

THOMAS E. CAMARDA,
Plaintiff-Appellant, Pro Se,
(Secured Party Creditor – Federal Enforcement Active)

v.

ELIZABETH M. WHITEHORN, et al.,
Defendants-Appellees.

Case No. 24-3244

NOTICE OF PUBLIC RECORD RELEASE – FEDERAL ENFORCEMENT ARCHIVE NOW LIVE

To the Clerk, Panel, and all officers of this Court:

This filing serves as formal notice that due to the unprecedented constitutional violations, suppression of federal enforcement filings, and failure of this Court to honor its procedural and statutory obligations, the entire federal litigation record is now being made public — in full.

The public deserves to know how this Court handled a case involving:

- A void state warrant,
- An un rebutted federal summary judgment,
- Retaliation under color of law for exercising First Amendment rights,
- And a cascade of constitutional denials spanning Title IV-D abuse, due process violations, and suppression of enforcement efforts under UCC and Rule 56(a).

PUBLIC ARCHIVES NOW ACTIVE:

-  GitHub Repository (Full Record, All Filings, Exhibits, Timelines):
 <https://camarda-v-whitehorn-et-al.github.io/Camarda-v-Whitehorn-et-al/>
-  Twitter (Live Notices, Exhibits, Callouts):

FULL PUBLIC ACCOUNTABILITY IN EFFECT

This Court, the Appellees, and all associated state actors will now be:

- Named by name,
- Cited by act, and
- Publicly documented for their role in obstructing constitutional relief and retaliating against a federal litigant.

This includes:

- Elizabeth M. Whitehorn – Director of Illinois HFS
- Nathaniel Holm & Randi Freese – State prosecutors tied to retaliatory charges
- Judge Mark Facchini – Void warrant signer outside assigned jurisdiction
- All clerks and court actors who suppressed federal supremacy notices, FOIA violations, and litigation-based UCC enforcement.

THE RECORD WILL NOT BE BURIED

Every motion, notice, and violation — including this Court's refusal to rule on:

- FRAP 31(c) default,
- Rule 56(a) perfected judgment,
- Retaliatory state prosecution, and
- Protected litigation under FRE 408 and U.S. Const. amend. I —

...is now published for attorneys, oversight bodies, journalists, and the American public to examine directly.

The law is not a suggestion.

The Supremacy Clause is not optional.

And this Court is not above the Constitution.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas E. Camarda

Plaintiff-Appellant, Pro Se
